

Privacy Policy

Your privacy is important to Children's Advocacy and Protection Center. This statement describes our privacy practices for our website, including what type of information is gathered and tracked, how the information is used, and with whom the information is shared.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

You can visit without telling us who you are and without revealing any information about yourself. We only have access to information that you give us voluntarily via e-mail or other direct contact. Any information that you provide us voluntarily will be used exclusively to respond to you and will not be shared with any third party by any means. Any personal data that we collect if you donate through Paypal is only used by us to contact you and is safely stored. Paypal is a secure payment portal and you may view their privacy practices by visiting their website.

LINKS TO OTHER WEB SITES

The Children's Advocacy and Protections Center's website contains links to other web sites. The Children's Advocacy and Protections Center is not responsible for the privacy practices or the contents of these sites.

Your Access to and Control Over Information:

You may opt out of any future contacts from us at any time by contacting us via e-mail or phone numbers listed on our website. You also have the right to contact us to inquire what information we have regarding you, or to revise any information you volunteered to us, correct it, and allow us to delete it, if necessary

QUESTIONS REGARDING THIS STATEMENT

Questions regarding this statement should be directed to the Executive Director of the Children's Advocacy and Protection Center at 828-465-9296.